remembering sept 11

It's hard to forget what happened in the USA on Sept 11, 2001. It seems to have changed the way we all think about our world. Like international Peace Day, Sept 11 is another day to reach out to those around you to make your world a better place.

So, Think of something you can do in your own way this month. Maybe make a pen pal in a distant country...or reach out to a lonely person or new neighbor where you live.

don't let terrorists put terror in you!

Show strength, tolerance and take charge. This page of activities will help you with positive messages and new ways to share love and express kindness to those near and far!

Make a Rainbow of Ribbons!

A rainbow of ribbons in colors so bright for peace, for love a world that shines bright

Its people are many in the colors we see of kindness and good like you and like me

Make a rainbow of ribbons show the world you care about everyone in it everywhere

*Send this poem along with a handmade rainbow of ribbons to your friends.

Better yet, why not braid your rainbow of ribbons into a bracelet and write your own poem about peace to send to all your friends...and then some!

make peace not war

Spread the message! Share a peace symbol with a friend! Put them on your lunch box or schoolbooks!

spread world love and world peace

No matter who we are, or what our age, it's on our minds to spread more peace and love these days. There are many simple ways we can make a difference big or small. How?

Why not make a new friend! Reach out to someone of your nationality or another. Invite them to your home, share your culture, language, holidays or foods, and let them do the same.

By bringing people into your world, and sharing theirs, you make the world smaller and help spread peace, tolerance and understanding.
